

General Data protection Regulations (GDPR)

As a client of Reiki River you need to be aware of how we as a business handle your data which is fully compliant with General Data protection Regulations (GDPR).

As you are aware, the new data protection legislation came into force in the UK on 25 May 2018. The General Data Protection (GDPR) is EU wide legislation and is currently being enacted into UK Law and will become the 2018 Data Protection Act.

Privacy and Copyright

Please read the following information carefully as it contains terms and conditions governing your accepted use of our website. The information contained within it and documents/forms in connection with the business.

Privacy Statement

Reiki River and its employees respect your privacy without question. Reiki River and its employees collecting personal data only do so for the continuing process of providing you with and to update information on the current workshops, treatments and special offers available.

We promise that any personal data collected will never be given to any third party. The only exception being that when document/goods are sent via post or email. You have a right to see any personal information held by Reiki River upon written or verbal request.

Copyright statement

Please feel free to browse our Reiki River website and its contents, however we ask that you adhere to our copyright requirements set down in this document as it pertains to all graphics, designs, logos, script and intellectual properties on this site documents and application forms.

Reiki River is a business name owned by Julie B. Rennie. All material on this site is owned by the aforementioned and must not be modified for use, distributed, transmitted or reused for public or commercial purposes.